

PRESS RELEASE

Eirene
2004. Design: Gabriele Assmann

A peaceful house, that's what we wish you. In her own way Eirene the personification of peace contributes to this, so that your room is filled with warmth, beauty and relaxation.

The Eirene Leolux sofa is a rich sofa that is characterised by the curved sloping back. This creates a really soft line that easily fits into less rigid interiors. The fluffy back cushions are moved by means of a clever guidance system so that they don't slip down. It's true your Eirene has a soft look, but an orderly one too.

Eirene has been created by Gabriele Assmann for the lover of designs with soft curves and organic shapes. Allow yourself to be charmed by Eirene, the bringer of peace but also of quality and comfort.

- Eirene is available as a 2.5-seat or 3-seat sofa.
- The sofa rests on a chrome slide, walnut legs or upholstered legs.
- Due to its shape the Eirene can be perfectly combined with the armchair Ploutos.
- The rail and gliders that allow the cushions to slide over the back are a patented Leolux system.
- Extra back cushions are available for those lovers of a fuller Eirene.

In Greek mythology the Eirene is the personification of peace. She is presented with sceptre, torch and the horn of plenty. Often Eirene is depicted holding little Ploutos (wealth/affluence).
